Thrilling matches

Yesterday we had quite interesting games. The men's game between Serbia and Turkey was really good and the score was 32-30 even though there was some tension. According to the coaches, Serbia was powerful and consisted of professionals which are constantly progressing. In particular, they mentioned that they are enjoying their stay in Cyprus and one of the players even joked that since Serbia doesn't have a Hilton like the one in Cyprus, they are waiting for Paris Hilton to open one! On the other hand, the Turkish team went really well in the 2nd game, even though the 1st one was more successful. The coach said he is really optimistic about the following games and he really believes in his team.

The men's teams are good but and Germany made the field ended with the score Belarusians said honor that their champions. The decently and they are doing their best for the cheerleaders of the University of Cyprus

Today we had some overthrows and team won Croatia with the score 34-11. Croatia scored only 2 times which proves On the other hand, the Croatians were trying following the orders given by their coach.

Immediately after this game, we had the terrific game between Turkey and France where it ended with the score 26-34. According to a player, the winners were quite a tough opponent for the Turkish team. However, the Turks are a really good team and they are enjoying their stay here in Cyprus!

we must say that the women of Belarus even prettier with their presence. The game 47-23 having Belarus the winner. The they were relaxed and mentioned with team is consisted of professionals and pretty Germans also stood out playing their team. A fascinating moment was when danced during the break with enthusiasm.

surprises! The strong German During the 2nd half-time how quick the Germans were. really hard during the game,
