Closed to the end

During the day we had quite a few derbies. The female game between Poland and Portugal ended with the score 25-18, leaving Poland the winner. It was very moving when some of the player's children, who were sitting on the rows, kissed their mothers in the end! The game was also watched by players of other teams.

On the other hand, quite crushing was the game between France and the University of Cyprus too. The remarkable victory of France began from the first five minutes scoring 4 goals. The game ended with the score 38-17 and was truly an impressive effort.

Nevertheless, we wish good luck to the teams for the rest of the games.

Vincent Pol Vs Belarussian

No surprises on today's two women semi-final games. University of Vincent Pol and Belarussian National Technical University convinced everybody for their superiority and undefeated marched to the decider final match. Tomorrow at 19:00 at the University of Cyprus the two teams will battle each other for a place to the top of women's championship. Wishes to both teams for a good match and may the best win.

Super matches

Two like semi-final games are schedule for tomorrow on men's championship. Insa Lyon University against University of Belgrade and University of Minho against WG KOLN University. While the second match is clear and the winner head to the final, the first match has a favor. French team with a significant better goal difference can still move to the final even with a lost tomorrow. However a hidden third team, Universidad de Malaga with a big win against their weaker opponent can actually steal first place from French with a potential defeat in their game.

Anyhow, all games tomorrow are very significant and we invite everybody to spend some time watching the effort of all teams.
